

SOCIETY'S DOINGS AT HOME AND IN SUBURBS

MRS. GEORGE H. EARLE has issued invitations for a large debutante luncheon, which she will give in honor of her daughter, Miss Hansell F. Earle, at their place in Bryn Mawr, October 1. All the debutantes of the season will be included among the guests.

Mrs. Charles Howell, Miss Josephine Howell and Miss Beatrice Howell, of Torredale, who have been motoring through New England on their way from Northeast Harbor, where they have been visiting Mrs. G. Frederick Jordan, will return to Torredale next week. Mrs. Howell and her daughters will move into town about the end of November.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Neff, who spent the early summer at their cottage in Beach Haven, had intended going abroad for a stay of several months. Obligated to abandon their plans owing to the war conditions, they spent the last month traveling through New England, passing several weeks in Northeast Harbor. They returned yesterday to their home in Cynwyd.

Mrs. William Daston, who has taken apartments at the Rittenhouse, is spending the day in New York. Miss Pauline Daston, who will be a debutante this winter, is visiting friends in Chestnut Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Lea entertained at dinner last night at the Mount Washington Hotel, in Bretton Woods, N. H.

Miss Edith Pleasanton is spending six weeks as the guest of Miss Kitty Barrett, at Fort Henry, Va. Miss Barrett is well known in the younger set of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. William Townsend Wright and their family, who have been spending the summer at Paul Smith's, in the Adirondacks, have returned to their residence on Church road, St. David's.

Mr. and Mrs. Murdoch Kendrick, of Guilford, Conn., have gone to Chicago for a stay of several weeks.

Mrs. Morris L. Clothier, who spent the summer at Watch Hill, R. I., returned yesterday to "Claremont," her suburban home at Villanova.

Major and Mrs. T. B. Baldwin, of Edgewater Park, have returned from Jefferson, N. H., and are spending some time at the Hotel Denis, Atlantic City, before opening their home, Gable Hall.

Mrs. Henry W. Hall, of Cynwyd, Pa., is passing the week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gill, at Edgewater Park.

Miss Irene Cramp is spending several days in Lenox, Mass., before returning to the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peale, of Wallingford, Pa., will pass the winter at their new home at Edgewater Park.

ALONG THE MAIN LINE

OVERBROOK—Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Castner have closed their Cape May cottage and are visiting Mr. Castner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Castner, Jr., at Devon, before opening their home on Wynnewood avenue for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McCurdy have returned from a two weeks' visit to Ocean City, N. J.

MERION—Anthony A. Schwartz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kiwa Schwartz, of Houghton, has just returned from a trip through New York State.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Pequinot and their four children, who spent the summer at their Cape May cottage, have opened their home, corner Hazlehurst and Forest avenues, Mrs. Pequinot's sister, Miss Katharine A. McCloskey, passed the season with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Searing are at their home on Berkeley road after a five weeks' stay at Spring Lake, where they were the guests of Mrs. Searing's sister, Mrs. H. L. Wardell, of New York.

NARBERTH—Mrs. Clarence Farley, of Windsor and Narberth avenues, has returned from a two weeks' stay in Chelsea, and Doctor Farley, who visited Raquette Lake, N. Y., is back in Narberth again.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Humphreys, of South Narberth avenue, who recently toured to Bar Harbor, are expected home the end of this month.

WYNNEWOOD—W. H. Wetherill, accompanied by his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Abel P. Bunting, of Kent road, will leave Tuesday for a week's travel along the Hudson River. On their return home Mr. and Mrs. Abel Bunting will start October 4 for a trip to Louisville, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. Russell will leave October 1 for Detroit, Mich., where Mrs. Russell and the children will spend six weeks with her mother, Mrs. H. K. Thimmedieu.

ADYNSIDE—Mrs. Howard Butcher, Jr., who, with her children, was recently marooned in Germany, cabined from Holland that she expected to sail on a liner reaching New York Sunday. Mr. Butcher will meet the steamer.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Reeves Bunting, of Ulster road, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, little Miss Jane Bunting. Mrs. Bunting will be remembered as Miss Mary P. Pearce.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Harold McQuale have returned from Cape May to their home on Simpson road.

DEVON—Mr. and Mrs. George Wharton Pepper, Miss Adelaide L. P. Pepper and Miss Charlotte D. Pepper, after passing the summer at Northeast Harbor, have returned to "Fox Creek Farm," their country place at Devon, where they will remain for the early fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar V. Seeler, Miss Josephine Seeler, Sidney P. Seeler and Edgar V. Seeler, Jr., who spent several weeks at Nantuxet, Mass., have returned home and are spending the fall months at Wayside, their country place.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Justice have returned to their suburban home, after spending a portion of the summer at Pocomo Summit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Williams, after spending several weeks at Wynnewood Inn, have gone to Bosc Harbor for a short sojourn.

GERMANTOWN

Mrs. F. A. Brown and her daughter, Miss Isabel Brown, of 215 East Mount Pleasant avenue, have returned from a week's motor trip to Lake Hopatcong and Shawnee-on-the-Delaware.

Mrs. Ashton Tupper entertained the Sedgwick Club at Avon-on-the-Sea for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Booth and family, who have been spending the summer at Cape May, have returned to their home, 1914 West Tulpehocken street.

Miss Katherine Cape, of 529 Wayne avenue, is making preparations to enter Swarthmore College the first of next month.

CHESTNUT HILL

Mrs. E. A. Brown and her daughter, Miss Isabel Brown, of 215 East Mount Pleasant avenue, have returned from a week's motor trip to Lake Hopatcong and Shawnee-on-the-Delaware.

Mrs. Ashton Tupper entertained the Sedgwick Club at Avon-on-the-Sea for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Booth and family, who have been spending the summer at Cape May, have returned to their home, 1914 West Tulpehocken street.

Miss Katherine Cape, of 529 Wayne avenue, is making preparations to enter Swarthmore College the first of next month.

Mrs. E. A. Brown and her daughter, Miss Isabel Brown, of 215 East Mount Pleasant avenue, have returned from a week's motor trip to Lake Hopatcong and Shawnee-on-the-Delaware.

Mrs. Ashton Tupper entertained the Sedgwick Club at Avon-on-the-Sea for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Booth and family, who have been spending the summer at Cape May, have returned to their home, 1914 West Tulpehocken street.

Miss Katherine Cape, of 529 Wayne avenue, is making preparations to enter Swarthmore College the first of next month.

Mrs. E. A. Brown and her daughter, Miss Isabel Brown, of 215 East Mount Pleasant avenue, have returned from a week's motor trip to Lake Hopatcong and Shawnee-on-the-Delaware.

MISS PHOEBE WILLIAMS ADAMS
Miss Adams, who made her debut last season, has just returned from a week's stay in the mountains with Mrs. George Jasper Harding, of 2215 Walnut street. Miss Adams' engagement to Mr. George J. Harding was announced last spring.

Martin's after spending the summer in Nova Scotia.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Janney, Jr., who have been spending the summer in Cape May, returned yesterday to their home, 37 East Summit street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rowland, Miss Frances Rowland and the Messrs. Rowland, of Navaho avenue, will close their house at Bay Head next week, and will return to the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Dunn, of Chestnut Hill, have returned from a visit to Eagles' Mere, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wray, Ludlow Wray and Alexander Wray returned yesterday from Bay Head, where they spent the summer.

Miss Helen Gantley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Gantley, of 7235 Boyer street, will return to her home on Saturday after spending several weeks at Ocean City.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Rittenhouse Miller and Dr. and Mrs. Frank Walter Thomas have gone to Swance on a motor trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Patterson have returned to town from Cape May, where they spent the summer. They have opened their house, 701 Chew street.

WEST PHILADELPHIA

The marriage of Miss Marion S. Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hamilton, to Robert J. Hamilton will take place Thursday, October 1, at the home of the bride's parents, 405 Hazel avenue. A cousin of the bride, the Rev. Mr. Beckman, will perform the ceremony.

Miss Isabel Manderson, who is now in the Berkshires, will reopen her home, 401 Walnut street, about October 1.

Miss Mae Johnson will entertain her friends at luncheon today.

Mrs. Michael Evans and her daughter, Miss Katharine Evans, have returned to their home after spending the summer in London. Their plans were to have Miss Evans attend school there, but on account of the war the young girl returned home with her mother.

Mrs. H. L. Wayland, of 511 South Forty-second street, who has been at Bay View, Mich., is now in Providence, R. I., for the fall.

Mrs. Nathaniel Gilderleeve has returned from Bar Harbor to her home, 4732 Hazel avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Delaplain Green and their family, of 24 South Forty-sixth street, have closed their cottage at Ocean City and have returned to their home.

Mrs. Victor G. Marquissee, who spent the summer at Bay Head, has returned to her home, 1129 South Wilton avenue.

Miss Leonora Kean will return to her home, 50th and Spruce streets, the later part of next week from the Delaware Water Gap, where she has been spending August and September.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Green, of 406 Pine street, have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Helen Green, and William Cooper, Saturday, October 10, at the Aldine. The ceremony will take place at 6 o'clock, and will be followed by a reception from 7 until 9 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Bement, who spent the summer at their camp on Lake Placid in the Adirondack Mountains, will return and open their town house, 2517 Spruce street, today.

Dr. and Mrs. Isaac H. Jones, who spent the summer at their cottage in Chelsea, have returned to their home, 461 Spruce street.

Mrs. Irwin N. Megargee, Miss Miriam Megargee and Miss Lorna Megargee, of the Essex, will close their cottage at Atlantic City this week and return to the city.

Miss Julia Young, formerly of Washington, D. C., and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rankin Young, has returned to her home, 808 South 60th street, after an extended trip through the West.

Miss Margaret Mary Dempsey, of 461 Baltimore avenue, is expected to return on Friday from Bay Head, Mich., where she has been visiting Miss Katherine May Hines. Mr. A. Dempsey and his daughters are still at their summer home in Langhorne, and will not return to town until the first of October.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher S. Donner, of 453 Spruce street, after spending the summer at Chelsea, have returned home for the winter.

Mrs. Louis J. McCloskey and her family, of 406 Spruce street, will return to town next week, having spent the summer at Wellfleet, Conn.

Mrs. Pedro M. Auzo, of Santiago, Cuba, is visiting her sister, Mrs. George A. Eohen, of 517 South 4th street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Stebbins, formerly of Hampton Court, have taken apartments at Sunderland House for the winter.

Mrs. F. W. Wood, of 405 Walnut street, left town a few days ago for Boston, where she will remain for about two weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Brown, of 431 South 40th street, are spending a few days at their cottage in Cape May.

Miss Olga Leps, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Wladis Leps, who was in Russia at the declaration of war, has returned to her home at the Powelton Apartments.

ROXBOROUGH

Mrs. George W. Shrader, of 232 Sumac street, Wissahickon, has returned with her daughters after a few weeks at Wildwood Crest.

The Charming Dish Club will reorganize about the first of October and continue to meet throughout the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Hindle, of 4156 Manayunk avenue, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Clemens, of Jenkintown, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eisenhart, of Harmon road, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, George H. Eisenhart, on September 12.

NORTHWEST PHILADELPHIA

Mr. and Mrs. Charles White, who spent the season in Ocean City, have returned to their winter home, 1935 North Park avenue.

The Rev. Russell H. Conwell, of 2029 North Broad street, will return tomorrow morning from a week's visit to his country place, Eagle's Nest, South Worthington, Mass. He was accompanied on the trip by Melvin Wright.

Miss Fidelia Heath, of 1430 West York street, has returned from an extended tour through Europe.

Mrs. Thomas McKinley Clare, of 2125 North Twelfth street, has returned from Baltimore, Md., where she was a guest of her cousin, Miss Crowley.

Miss Frances F. Hazen, of 1708 Mount Vernon street, is spending September at Johnsville, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. W. Smith have closed their summer home in Atlantic City and have returned to their town residence, 1226 West Lehigh avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Jere L. Cresse and their daughter, Miss Lydia Cresse, have opened their winter home, 297 Green street, after spending the summer at Cape May.

The Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Harris, of 1852 North Sixteenth street, have returned from several weeks' stay at Winona Lake, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McCadden and their daughters, Miss Edna McCadden and Miss Alice McCadden, of 2529 North Broad street, have returned from their cottage in Atlantic City, N. J.

Miss Cora Fields, of 2144 North Nineteenth street, after visiting relatives in several of the Western States, returned home by automobile.

Mrs. J. F. McLaughlin and daughters, of 1742 Diamond street, have returned from Chelsea.

Miss Nellie McLaughlin's engagement was recently announced to Mr. William H. Jarden.

Miss Margaret S. McAllister, of 1920 North Eighteenth street, after a trip to Lake Champlain and Montreal, has gone to Atlantic City, to remain until November.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Augustus Lengert and their daughter, Miss Lida F. Lengert, who opened their Cape May cottage early in May, will remain at the shore until late in November.

They are thinking of keeping their Diamond street house closed and spending the winter in Germantown instead of in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hetzel and the latter's mother and sister, Mrs. James Whitecar and Miss Blanche Whitecar, will return to their town house, 224 North Sixteenth street, late in October. They have been spending six months at their summer home at Collingswood.

Miss Mary Hughes, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. John J. Gruber, at her apartments at Atlantic City, has returned to her home, on North Twentieth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph B. Hess, of 1924 Diamond street, have returned, after spending the summer at Atlantic City.

The Misses Drefun, of 1525 Diamond street, have returned from Atlantic City after spending the summer at their Pacific avenue cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Landis Detweiler and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Oellers, have closed their cottage at Chelsea and are occupying their city home, 1917 North Twelfth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Smith, accompanied by their daughters, Miss Mary Smith and Miss Margaret Smith, of 1513 North Twelfth street, have returned from an all-summer stay at Ocean City.

TIOGA

The marriage of Miss Helen Zane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Morris Zane, of 224 and Tioga streets, and Harold MacGibbon, of Santa Fe, New Mexico, will take place in November.

Mrs. William Shannon, of 2125 West Erie avenue, has returned from Ocean City, where she was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Ellwood Wick, at her summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Groff, who have been spending a fortnight in Maryland, have returned to their home, 537 North Sixteenth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rowe, of 3315 North 21st street, have returned to their winter residence after spending the season in Ardmore.

Mrs. Harry Rees, of 1125 West Venango street, has been spending the early part of the week in New York, where she was the guest of Mrs. Charles W. Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith Haight, of North Warwick street, who have been spending some time in London, have sailed from Southampton to South Africa, where they will remain several months.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles R. Fulmer, of 121 West Allegheny avenue, with their son, Leroy Fulmer, and daughter, Miss Grace Fulmer, have returned from their cottage in Ocean City, where they spent the summer.

Mrs. Samuel T. Fox, who spent the season at the Arlington, Ocean Grove, has returned to her home on Ontario street, west of Eighteenth.

Miss Mary Halderman, of Seventeenth and Tioga streets, has returned from Doylestown, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ross, of 3715 North Seventh street, have closed their country place in Port Washington and have returned to their winter home.

Miss Beatrice Smith, of 1539 West Venango street, has returned after spending three weeks in Wildwood, N. J.

Mrs. Simon Weil and her daughter, Miss Edith Weil, of North Broad street, have left Atlantic City and have gone to Niagara Falls and the Thousand Islands.

Miss Helen Millard, of 379 North Eighteenth street, has returned from a week's visit in Ocean City.

Mrs. James Hilton and her son, Stanford Hilton, of 217 West Ontario street, who have been taking automobile trips every week-end, have returned from May's Landing, N. J.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Halliwell, of 1822 West Tioga street, have returned from a 10 days' trip through Maryland and Virginia.

Their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. Harold Halliwell, are spending some time in Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Brehm, of 1823 West Tioga street, have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Scott Bannister are visiting

Mrs. Bannister's mother, Mrs. Livey, in Wildwood.

Dr. and Mrs. G. Morton Gillman, of Fifteenth and Allegheny avenue, have returned from Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason Baker, of 1805 West Erie avenue, have returned from an extended stay on Little Deer Island on the Maine coast.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gamble, of 3551 North Sixteenth street, and their daughter, Miss Dorothy Gamble, have returned from Asbury Park, where they passed the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Amos, of 3129 North Carlisle street, have returned from Atlantic City, where they have been staying since June.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira D. Bertelet and their daughter, Miss Marian Bertelet, of North Eighteenth street, have been spending a short time at Buck Hill Falls since closing their country home at Perkasie, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Lincoln Acker and Miss Emily Acker, of West Venango street, have returned from the Maine woods.

Mrs. P. Hartman Fox, of Austin, Pa., is visiting Mrs. J. Charles Wenrath, of 3338 North Eighth street. Mrs. Fox is the wife of the State Forester of Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kinwechter, of 3718 North Sixteenth street, have closed their country place in Lanadowne and have returned to their winter home.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. J. Burgert have returned from their wedding journey and will be at home after September 21, at 3412 North 23d street. Mrs. Burgert was Miss F. Emma Goforth, daughter of Mrs. Anna B. Goforth, of North 23d street.

Dr. and Mrs. Milton K. Meyers will receive after October 15, at 1525 South Broad street. Mrs. Meyers was Miss Ethel K. Altschuler, daughter of Kiva Altschuler. Doctor Meyers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund Meyers, of 3901 North 25th street.

Miss Eda Stern, of North 21st street, has returned from Atlantic City.

ROXBOROUGH

Miss Nellie McKean, of Mason City, Iowa, who has been touring through New England, arrived in this city today and will be the guest for a week of Mrs. Chester Hopkins, of 294 Rochelle avenue, Wissahickon.

Alexander Given and his daughter, Miss Fannie Given, of Lyceum avenue, closed their summer home in Ocean City and returned to their winter residence on Tuesday.

Mrs. George Wickersham, of 302 Rochelle avenue, Wissahickon, has gone to Somers Point, where she will be the guest of Mrs. Hannah Hayday. Several entertainments have been arranged in her honor.

Mrs. Ella Bucock and her daughter, Miss Bucock, have returned to their home on Rochelle avenue, after spending the summer at Stone Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hays, of Lyceum avenue, have returned from an all summer's stay at Eagle's Mere.

Mrs. Sarah Meier, of Pittsburgh, is visiting Mrs. Frederick Whitney, of Rochelle avenue.

Mrs. Charles Straub, of Ridge avenue, who spent the summer in Europe, arrived home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Simpson and family have returned to their winter residence on Green lane, after passing the season at their Ocean City cottage.

Mrs. William Snear and her daughters, Mrs. Geville Yarnall, Mrs. Harry Krohn, Jr., and Mrs. Jacob Grow, are spending several weeks touring through the New England States.

Dr. and Mrs. Eli G. Beary have returned from a tour of the Great Lake region.

Mrs. Christian Clegg, formerly of Roxborough, will make her future home in Wildwood. Mrs. Clegg was Miss Mary Robinson, daughter of John Robinson, of Ridge and Leverington avenues.

NEWPORT

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 18.—Mrs. Arthur C. James gave a dinner last night.

Count and Countess de San Esteban, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. M. van Beuren, are at the Muenchinger King.

Mrs. John Mayer, of Morrisstown, N. J., who has been occupying the Armistead cottage, will spend the winter here.

Mrs. Nelson Brown, of Philadelphia, occupying one of the Pinard cottages, will entertain informally with a dinner today for the Russian Ambassador and Madame Bakhteff.

Mrs. William B. Caperton and her daughter, Miss Marguerite Caperton, will return to Philadelphia on Saturday and join Rear Admiral William B. Caperton before he assumes command of the cruiser squadron.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Cassatt will leave for Philadelphia today.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis I. Gowen and their stay tomorrow, and return to Philadelphia.

NARRAGANSETT PIER

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., Sept. 18.—A golf tournament was opened here yesterday between the Women's Golf Club of Watch Hill and the Women's Golf Team of Narragansett, on the links of the Point Judith Country Club.

The Narragansett team won by three points. A return match will be played at Watch Hill.

Mrs. E. W. Mason Fitzmeyer gave a bridge party, followed by tea, at her villa on Central street. Among the guests were Mrs. Newton Hutchinson, Mrs. E. W. Robinson, Mrs. R. Frederick Taylor, Mrs. Walter Richmond, Mrs. Henry Blane, Mrs. Walter Comstock, Mrs. Percy Wright, Mrs. Henry Bowen, Miss Caroline H. Fritz, Mrs. Wallace Chandler, Miss Hush, Mrs. Ernest Wilkinson, Mrs. Byron S. Watson, Mrs. Irving H. Chase, Miss Alice Foster, Mrs. Harold K. Knowlton, Miss Agnes Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Mills, who spent the summer at the Pier, closed their villa today and returned to Philadelphia.

FRIENDS AT HADDONFIELD

Quarterly Meeting Brings Out Expressions Against European War.

The Haddonfield Quarterly Meeting of Friends met yesterday at Moorestown, N. J. The business meeting was preceded by devotional exercises, in which Daniel Batchelor, of Germantown, said that the war in Europe was teaching a peace lesson which the world must heed. Other messages were given by Mary Brown, Ellwood Roberts, Koziah Wilkins, Dr. Franklin Hanns, Alexander Thompson, of Haddonfield, and Anna Templeton-De Cou.

The clerks of the business meeting were George Gillingham and Sarah L. Albertson.

The political aspect of the drink question was introduced by William Cole, who urged the importance of going to the primary polls to nominate men who would support the national prohibition amendment. Irrespective of party lines. This met with general approval. Among those who took part in the discussion were Dr. Joshua Janney, of Riverton; Horace Roberts and Daniel Willets, of Trenton.

Helena De Cou, one of the resident workers of the Friends' Neighborhood Guild, at Fourth and Green streets, told of the need of more volunteer workers.

THE DRAMA

THEATRICAL BAEDEKER